

Goodyear Mileage = and Tires for Small Cars

A well-built tire yields much more mileage for each dollar of cost than a tire purposely made to be offered at a sensationally low price; buy the tire, not the price.

Built to deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost, Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3, 30 x 3 1/2 and 31 x 4-inch sizes, save inconvenience, disappointment and money.

Their value results from the application of Goodyear experience, expertness and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—for the real worth and endurance that Goodyear builds into them.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $4.50 in waterproof bag

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Rev. J. T. Edwards will end his services as pastor of the Baptist church here on Sunday next and will leave within a few days for Bloomington, where he has accepted a call to become pastor of the Baptist church in that place. Rev. Mr. Edwards, a graduate of the Newton Theological Seminary, has been pastor of the Danielson Baptist church for the past three and a half years. His resignation as pastor here was filed about three months ago. Rev. Mr. Edwards' salary in Bloomington will be approximately double what it has been in Danielson.

In order that some confusion resulting over published statements in different papers relative to the activities of two young men, both members of the United States navy, bearing the same name, the following statement was given out here on Tuesday:

Walter Henry Arnold, son of Mrs. Daniel Shippee, is a second class electrician on the U. S. S. Ontonagon, which left Portsmouth for the Pacific coast last January. The ship is now in drydock for repairs at the Mare Island navy yard. Mr. Arnold was granted shore leave and visited with uncle, William Leach, formerly of Wauregan, at Oakland, Cal.

The Wauregan band has just been equipped with fine new uniforms furnished through a local clothing dealer. The band, numbering 30 pieces, is under the leadership of Henry Leach, one of the best known musicians in this part of the state, and has made splendid progress since it was organized about a year ago. The new uniforms are navy blue, with military brass trimmings of black, and give the players a natty appearance. The uniforms are the gift of the Wauregan company, which is always generous in its assistance of the worthy organizations that help in such a manner to the Wauregan, a real pleasant village in which to live.

Perhaps, before the summer season ends, the Wauregan band might find it possible to come and give a concert on Davis park, a treat that certainly would be appreciated.

Joseph Lagasse of Attawapung is going to do his bit toward the end that no one shall close the Windham county jail at Brooklyn for lack of patronage for at least six months longer. Lagasse was found guilty in the town court Tuesday morning of having stolen a pair of brand new gold-bowed glasses from Oliver Phaneuf, also of Attawapung. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to the charge, but the witnesses against him, the testimony they were able to give, together with Lagasse's own poor showing under examination by Prosecuting Attorney Arthur G. Hill, led to his downfall.

In passing sentence upon Lagasse Judge Woodward called the prisoner's attention to the fact that the penalty would be made more severe than might have been the case had Lagasse told the truth on the witness stand. The sentence was six months in jail and cost of prosecution.

Phaneuf testified that, having purchased new eyeglasses in Putnam last Saturday morning, he returned to Attawapung and took a seat in the sitting room at the mill boarding house there. The weather was oppressive, so Phaneuf removed his coat, containing the glasses, and left it on a seat near by. He charged that Lagasse stole the glasses at that time. Questioned about having Phaneuf's property, Lagasse denied the charge, but on Monday while he was at work in the mill, another employee saw him squat down back of a room and try on the spectacles. A search about Lagasse's rooms after the mill closed for the day revealed Phaneuf's glasses hidden away under a piece of cloth in the bottom of a waste box.

Next Sunday will bring the Connecticut Mills and Goodyear baseball teams together for the third game of the series they have been playing. Goodyear has won the two games so far played. Manager W. E. Keach of the Connecticut Mills team said Tuesday that he will have a crackerjack lineup to match against the Goodyear stars on Sunday next, when the game will be played here in Danielson. The local team will have the services of a particularly strong battery, besides additional strength at other points on the field. The teams should furnish a diamond but reveal, for they both have fine players and the added desire to win the championship of the town of Killingly.

A diver is at work at the Dyer dam power plant of the Connecticut company, investigating in detail the damage that was done a few weeks ago when a serious washout occurred and disabled the water power of the plant to such an extent as to force the plant to use its steam auxiliary. The damage caused by the washout was very heavy, possibly amounting to as much as $50,000. No statement was forthcoming on Tuesday as to what the company may do towards making the necessary repairs, and no statement is to be anticipated. It is believed, until after the present investigation by the diver is completed and his reports filed.

It is with more than passing gratification that Killingly people learn that this town made the greatest gain in population during the past year of any of the 15 towns of Windham county. This gain may be chiefly accredited to the development of the big tire fabric concerns within the borders of the town, and may be taken as an indication of what Killingly's growth will be within a serious five years as the development plans of the Connecticut Mills company here in Danielson and the Goodyear concern are carried out, no mention the growth that is naturally to be expected through the expansion of such concerns as have recently located here and the old standby companies that for many, many years have been the basis of the town's prosperity.

Killingly's gain, the census returns for Windham county show, was 1,674. Plainfield showed the second largest gain with 1,397, Windham third with 1,197, and Putnam fourth with 1,117.

The present temporary financial stringency has held up a building program amounting to about $2,000,000 in Killingly, but this holdup is only temporary and the bringing of it to completion, probably during the coming year, will mean at least 10,000 population for Killingly within from three to five years.

Raymond A. Preston, recently returned from a visit in California and in states of the northwest, is visiting with his parents, Town Clerk and Mrs. Frank T. Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gartland of Bridgeport have been visiting here with Mr. Gartland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gartland, and other relatives.

Harold Conklin, E. S. M. C., and attached to the battleship Nevada, now in New York, and Maurice Conklin, formerly at New Britain for the S. N. E. T. company, have been visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Conklin, at Elmville.

Mrs. Ross Warren will have the members of the Baptist Ladies' society at her home for a meeting this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Henry P. Williamson of Norwalk was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Tuesday.

Henri I. Baer of Rosedale, L. I., was in town on Tuesday, making a visit to his Palisade kennels at East Killingly.

PUTNAM

Miss Caroline Borbauer, during the past year teacher of modern languages at the Adams, Mass., high school, and formerly a teacher at Putnam High school, came to Putnam Tuesday to spend a few days with Mrs. A. W. MacDonald, Oak Hill.

Mrs. J. Richard Carpenter, Miss Eleanor Carpenter, Miss Marion Carpenter and Kenneth C. Ballard, South Main street, returned to Putnam Monday from Oak Bluffs, Mass., where they have been spending a vacation.

A souvenir booklet issued by the state fund committee to the delegates who were in attendance at the state convention of the American Legion in Bridgeport, last week, contains the names of United States public health service physicians. Included in the former list is the Day Kimball hospital of Putnam. Dr. Frank P. Todd, Danielson; Dr. C. E. Simonds, and Dr. William P. S. Keating of Willimantic.

Otto J. Knoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knoll, Putnam, and Miss Albertine Beauregard, Green street, Putnam, were married at 5 o'clock on Monday morning at St. Mary's church by Rev. Arthur Routhier.

Funeral services for George S. Cutler, who died in Milford Saturday, were held in the East Putnam church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial was in East Putnam cemetery. Mr. Cutler was a former resident of East Putnam.

Munroe & Brown have opened a vulcanizing and retreading shop on School street opposite Fisher's store.—adv.

Mrs. Henry Davis, Miss Edie Davis, Miss Edna Davis and Miss Myrtice Humes have returned to Putnam after a month's vacation at Appanau, R. I. Luke Gibeon and family of Pawtucket were recent guests of Eugene Gibeon and family, Florence street.

Frank L. Davis, agent of the Windham County Farmers' Association has arranged for two tractor demonstrations and one tractor demonstration to be held on farms in Windham county on August 26. The first of these arranged for farmers in the north and central part of the county, will be held at 9 a. m. on the farm of August Danielson, South Woodstock, on the road from South Woodstock to Pomfret. Two commercial tractors will be used, and will be operated by representatives of the companies sending them here. According to Mr. Davis there is on the Danielson farm a low-lying piece of land, adjacent to the state highway which seems to be an average of the kind of land that can be profitably drained at reasonable expense, and result in the possible production of a wonderful hay crop. Mr. Davis stated that there are throughout the county many such pieces of land, now useless because not properly drained, but which if the excess water were removed, would make valuable fields. The ditching demonstration will be given by T. J. Ensign of New York, an expert in the use of explosives for farm purposes. In the afternoon of the same day at 2 o'clock another ditching demonstration will be given on the C. S. Hyde farm, Canterbury, now owned by W. F. Herr. There will not be a tractor demonstration there. The Hyde farm is located at the intersection of the Brooklyn-Canterbury and the Wauregan roads. There is some low meadow land on this farm that it would seem has great possibilities of being improved by the removal of excess water. Mr. Davis says that the conditions on this farm are average, and by means of the demonstration hope to show how profitable it would be for farmers who have similar land to drain it and thus obtain increased crop production. Mr. Ensign

Jamaica ginger up in the old prohibition story. Henry C. Hennel of Lowell was in Danielson Tuesday on a business trip. Women here, as a whole, seem very little upset over the Tennessee tangle.

Tuesday, with its average temperature of 78 and a northerly breeze, was the most delightful day of the entire summer season.

F. Waldo Raymond, who gives an entertainment in Brooklyn tonight, is well remembered in that town, his former home.

Recent visitors to Oakland Beach, where there is a diminishing Danielson colony, say that the place is becoming one of the most important amusement centers of all the vacation places along the Providence river and Narragansett bay.

The slow-up in industry notwithstanding, the Brooklyn Savings bank reports a steady increase in deposits, now about $3,329,900 at this institution.

Deputy Grand Warden George A. Howard of Norwich, deputy of B. A. Bailey lodge of the New England Order of Protection of this place, accompanied by Supreme Deputy J. L. Wheeler of New London, will make an official visit to the local lodge Wednesday evening.

Captain John H. Bulger of the Putnam police department has had a new role thrust upon him. On Tuesday he appeared upon the Putnam streets as guardian and chaperon of fifty-eight kewpie dolls that are now lodged in the police headquarters on Church street for safe keeping. There are all kinds and sorts—tall ones, short ones, bathing girls, blondes and brunettes, and according to the captain he has in his custody the daintiest collection of femininity that the eye ever beheld. The dolls were taken Monday night from a woman in Putnam who held them as prizes offered to the holders of lucky numbers in punch boards that she was placing around the city. The winner of the game got a doll and also one doll went to each child who sold chances. In addition to the kewpies the police obtained $8 from the woman who she had received from those who had been selling chances. It is understood that the punch boards were brought to this city by outside people, and left with the woman from whom they were taken by Captain Bulger. For placing the boards with children who sold chances this agent received $5 cents a board. When all chances on a board were taken, the person selling them received 15 of the boards, $5 dolls and an equal sum of money. There are still 10 boards scattered throughout the city. As yet the police have made no arrests in connection with the placing of the punch boards.

Commander Edward F. Perry of Anselm Mayoff post of the American Legion has invited John F. Pickett, Ansonia, the newly elected commander of the Connecticut department, to come to Putnam of Labor Day to participate in the outing that the Putnam post is to hold in co-operation with Leo J. L'Honnem post of Danielson. Mr. Pickett has not definitely accepted the invitation, but hopes to do so. He is superintendent of schools in Ansonia, and since schools open on the following day, he may not be able to come here. Major and Mrs. Morris R. Payne of New London will attend the outing of the two legion posts. Major Payne has been state Americanization officer of the legion during the past year, and is keenly interested in legion activities. Congressman Richard T. Freeman of this district has accepted an invitation to deliver a short address. Rev. Charles F. Bedford, priest in charge of St. Mary's parish, Putnam, will also
